A Letter From Fr. Kennell

Dear Parish Family,

As was announced last weekend at the Masses, I am taking roughly a month to do some work focusing on my overall health. The goal is to come back renewed in mind, body, and spirit, as well as more enabled to live out the call of being a good and holy priest and the Pastor of St. John – your pastor.

I am sorry that the timing is such that I am not with you on this particular weekend when we have so much going on at the parish! I love the hinged feasts of All Saints and All Souls. They are beautiful days full of hope and the upward call to be holy! I love how these celebrations teach us the unity within the Communion of Saints and the Mystical Body of Christ. We are united with those who have gone before, those we cannot see. And so it is true on earth too. We are connected to so many that we cannot see, yet our prayers on behalf of the Body are efficacious, even for those we've never met.

While I am away from you these weeks, it gives me comfort to know that your prayers for me are heard by the Father and are to my benefit. So also, my prayers for you are heard and are effective, even though we are not physically together. This is just as the prayers of the Saints are for us, as well as our prayers for those awaiting Heaven in Purgatory.

I really hope you all have enjoyed and continue to enjoy the festivities this weekend, concluding with our annual parish picnic on Sunday afternoon. Know that I miss being with you, but I look forward to seeing you all again soon. In the meantime, please keep praying for me! I am praying for you.

Peace.

-Fr. Kennell

The Greatest Commandment Puzzle

Use the words from the list to fill in the blanks and use the letters in boxes to fill in the blanks at the end.

One of the scribes came to Jesus and asked him, "Which is the first of all the commandments?" Jesus replied, "The first is this: Hear, O Israel! The Lord our God is _[2]_ _ alone! You shall _[4]_ _ the Lord your God with all your [6]_ _ _ _, _ _[5]_ all your soul, with all your _ _ _[3], and with all your _ _ _ _ _[1]_ _.
