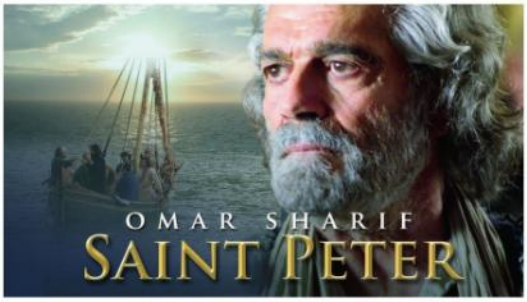
Peter: Keeper of the Keys

When a young Christian girl is arrested and imprisoned in ancient Rome, she hears stories of martyrs like St. Catherine of Alexandria and St. Lawrence the Deacon—will she find the strength to make the ultimate sacrifice for her faith?



Saint Peter

Watch the epic story of the spread of Christianity during the early years of the Church. This film follows the journey of St. Peter through his martyrdom on a cross.

A Letter from Fr. Kennell

Dear Parish Family & Friends,

We have been hitting the Solemnities quite hard this month! Just on Friday we celebrated one of our Diocesan feasts, the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart. A few days earlier, the Solemnity of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist. Now, today, we celebrate the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul. What's interesting is that the Church has found it important enough to celebrate this feast day (always falling on June 29), that it replaces the celebration of the 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

These two men are the pillars of the Church of Rome, having both gone there in response to the Lord's call, and both being martyred there out of love for Christ. Their burial places now underlie two of the four main basilicas in Rome – the universally known St. Peter in Vatican City, and St. Paul Outside the Walls.

As an older priest mentor would say sometimes: We have the bones! Perhaps this seems a bit macabre, but the reality is that the bones of these men give deep witness to our faith as handed down to us over the last 2,000 years. The stories of the Bible, Jesus of Nazareth – God and Man – and the ramifications of his life, death, and resurrection, are concretely manifest in the remains of these two great Saints. It's fact, not fiction.

Sts. Peter and Paul, pray for us!

-Fr. Kennell

Diocesan Second Collection
Peter's Pence Collection
June 28 & 29

Starting with the first disciples of Jesus and his Apostles and continuing today, Christians have given of their resources to support the Church's mission of preaching the Gospel and providing for the needs of the poor. As the Church has grown and spread across the world, Christians have long expressed their unity with the Holy Father and their commitment to his mission of mercy through an annual contribution called Peter's Pence.

Today, Catholics who contribute to the Peter's Pence Collection continue this legacy of church unity and care for the poor. Their gifts to the Holy Father are "concrete signs of hope" to Pope Leo XIV and fulfill the two aims of Peter's Pence as set by the Holy See: "(1) To support the Holy Father's mission, which extends throughout the entire world, from the proclamation of the Gospel to the promotion of integral human development, education, peace, and brotherhood among peoples: thanks also to the many activities of service carried out by the dicasteries, bodies and organs of the Holy See that assist him every day; and (2) To support the numerous charitable works in aid of people and families in difficulty, populations afflicted by natural disasters and wars, or who are in need of humanitarian assistance or support for development."

For more information on Peter's Pence, please visit the Vatican's Peter's Pence website: www.obolodisanpietro.va/en.html (English) or www.obolodisanpietro.va/es.html (español).
