The Holy Father's Prayer Intention for April: For the role of women

We pray that the dignity and immense value of women be recognized in every culture, and for the end of discrimination that they experience in different parts of the world.

A Letter From Fr. Kennell

Dear Parish Family,

Today we conclude the octave of Easter, eight days that are treated as an elongation of Easter Sunday itself. We also celebrate today, as we do now every year since 2001, Divine Mercy Sunday. It was at the canonization of St. Maria Faustina Kowalska, the Polish nun to whom our Lord appeared and revealed the particular message of and devotion to Divine Mercy, that Pope John Paul II declared the Second Sunday of Easter to be "Divine Mercy Sunday." Although the devotion had been around since the 1930s, it really took off after this saintly pope's clear endorsement. As a Polish man, priest, and bishop, JP II had long known of the devotion and had a particular place in his heart for it. This was remembered by his successor, Pope Benedict XVI, when he chose Divine Mercy Sunday to beatify John Paul in 2011. And then a few years later, Pope Francis canonized both John Paul II and John XXIII on Divine Mercy Sunday in 2014.

There are many graces given by Our Lord on this day, as he made clear to St. Faustina. There is much that you can find online regarding the devotion and the promises made by Jesus to us through St. Faustina. However, the primary grace is essentially a return to our soul's state when we were just baptized. A total cleansing! The conditions are that one receives Holy Communion and goes to confession and puts their trust in Jesus. Prayer before the image of the Divine Mercy is also recommended by the Church, as well as praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet.

Regarding the Chaplet: this is a prayer said on the beads of the Rosary. It is a prayer composed by the Lord himself, and given to St. Faustina in her various mystical encounters with Christ. The Lord promised many graces through the regular saying of the Chaplet, especially great help for those who are dying. I highly recommend learning this prayer! It is quite simple. The Chaplet of Divine Mercy is something that I also strongly encourage you to pray with and for your family and other loved ones when the time is coming for them to pass from this world. God has promised that he will defend those who say the chaplet, or those who have the chaplet said for them. God loves us and wants us all to come to him!

Happy Easter, and happy Divine Mercy Sunday! God bless you.

-Fr. Kennell

Pamphlets on how to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet are located on the table in the Church entryway.

APRIL IS MONTH OF THE MILITARY CHILD

MCEC Purple Up! for military KIDS

Wear Purple to Support our Military Students

MilitaryChild.org

Each year, April is set aside as a military child appreciation month, officially known as the Month of the Military Child. With its creation in the mid-1980s, the Pentagon and other military support organizations and agencies use the month to recognize military kids for their unique sacrifices and bravery on the homefront.

Because purple is the color used to represent all military services, the theme "Purple Up" is used over the course of the month.

All students and staff are invited to join us for "Purple Up" day on Friday April 19, 2024 as we celebrate our MIlitary students. Students and staff are invited to wear a purple shirt and/or purple socks with uniform bottoms.
